UUA PRINCIPLES

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- * The inherent worth and dignity of every person.
- * Justice equity, and compassion in human relations.
- * Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations.
- * A free and responsible search for truth and meaning.
- * The right of conscience and the use of democratic process within our congregations and in society at large.
- * The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all.
- * Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

(Adopted by the 1984 and 1985 General Assemblies)

Worship Services are held every Sunday at 10:30am - Child Care is Provided Everyone is Welcome!

April 9th Service - Verisimilitude - The service will be led by Worship Associate, Tom Huber. Some things have the appearance of truth but in fact are not true. Are we beset with verisimilitudes? Some of our deepest understandings are being challenged. Our acapella group, the UU Notes, will sing.

April 16th Service - Easter Service- The service will be led by Rev. Beverly Brent. The SUUC Choir will sing.

April 23rd Service - The Future is Theirs: Kids Caring for the Earth - The service will be led by Worship Associate, Judi Reis.

April 30th Service - Come Pray With Me - The service will be led by guest minister, Rev. Lori Whittemore.

May 7th Service - We'll have a joint service with UUCSB with Rev. Margaret Beckman at the Saco Church. After the service, we'll have a discussion and Q and A, led by Rev. Margaret and Rev. Steve, with both congregations about the search process and moving forward. It will be an exciting day! Please plan to be there, more information coming soon.

Along the Way ...

Dear Friends,

Perhaps by now, word will have reached you concerning the startling resignation of UUA President, the Rev. Peter Morales. (Below you will find his letter and the response from the UUA Leadership Council.) While this is a bit of a shock, it's important to remember that Peter's term was but three months from being completed; three candidates for President have already been campaigning for over a year; a new President would in any case have been elected at General Assembly in June.

There will be more to say about this in the time ahead, prompting deep thoughts and feelings about issues such as systemic racism and unexamined biases even within organizations as committed to racial justice as the UUA. However, in the meantime, I have every confidence that UUA staff and leadership already in place will continue their work of service to our congregations. We, in search, will have no reason to worry about a disruption in our process already underway.

In the meantime, I hope you will join me in offering thoughts and prayerful intentions to Peter, to the staff of the Association and to all of our sister and brother UUs across the country. Let us resolve that this painful moment will lead to greater sensitivity, renewed commitment and real action in helping the UUA become more the justice-seeking religious association it has always meant to be.

Reverend Steve

UUA Board of Trustees

Dear Colleagues,

You are all aware of the ongoing controversy regarding the UUA's hiring practices and lack of diversity in our senior leadership. Unfortunately, a note I sent to UUA staff a few days ago made matters worse. In my hasty effort I created more hurt for those already hurting. I failed to lead appropriately. I reacted when I should have listened. I am deeply sorry.

I have clearly lost the trust of many people and my comments have become a focal point in the ongoing discussion. It is clear to me that I am not the right person to lead our Association as we work together to create the processes and structures that will address our shortcomings and build the diverse staff we all want. We need space for healing and listening.

It is time for me to step aside. I am resigning the office of UUA president effective April 1. It has been an honor to serve as president. I am grateful for your dedicated and diligent service to our faith. May you have wisdom, vision, and courage in the days ahead.

My fervent prayer is that by stepping aside I help create a space for moving forward together in love and respect. It is time for us to come together, to listen deeply to one another, to reaffirm our commitment to our ideals.

Faithfully,

Peter Morales

Dear Unitarian Universalists,

We write this having learned from our President, the Rev. Peter Morales, his intention to resign from his leadership position in our faith. We honor him for his service to our Unitarian Universalist movement. We hope that his difficult decision will open a new way for the work of racial justice in our own house.

We want to apologize for the way our leadership at the UUA has fallen far short in building the diverse Associational office that the core values of our faith demand. In addition, we understand that our responses and silence in response to recent public statements have layered harm upon harm.

We take very seriously the question of how our policies, practices, leadership and culture systematically center and advantage white people within Unitarian Universalism. We acknowledge that it is past time for us to examine more deeply than we ever have the patterns of institutional racism that are embedded in our practices of leadership, including hiring.

It has been humbling, devastatingly sad, and inspiring to read so many courageous calls to a deeper justice, to more courage, more faithfulness from us, especially from Unitarian Universalists of Color who have helped us hold a mirror to our own institution. We recommit ourselves and our service to this call.

In the next week, we will begin putting together a plan for how we will engage in an immediate internal review of how our institution advantages white leaders, and Unitarian Universalists. This will include a review of hiring and promotion procedures and goals, the involvement of outside expertise, working together with the UUA Board, and engaging in critical self-examination about how all of our programs and initiatives advance our commitment to anti-racism and inclusivity.

We will be examining our own hearts, listening humbly, and partnering with other leaders in our faith to find our way forward.

We are grateful for your faithful, angry, disappointed, loving expressions of your hopes for our faith. This, all of it, is what will carry us to a new way.

Call For All Pledge Cards!

Dear Members, Please return your pledge cards for the Annual Budget Drive before April 7th! Remember, this is simply your promise to help the church pay its bills and staff in the new Fiscal Year beginning on July 1, 2017; your pledge, your promise to help, is needed THIS WEEK so that the Budget and Finance Committee and the Board can create and approve our new Budget. No money is needed until after July 1st, and your pledge can be paid on any schedule that makes you comfortable - weekly, monthly, every three months, or all at once. We thank all who have pledged so far! The church has promises of $45,000 at this time, which is a bit short of our goal. Let us know if you need a pledge card, or pick one up from the Parlor table at church. If you can help, please send or bring your pledge card to church. THANKS VERY MUCH! Diane Whiteside-Peck and Kristie Praschak

Annual Meeting on Sunday, May 21, 2017

It's time to begin thinking about your annual report. A notice and list of reports will be emailed to Board and Committee Leaders mid April. Common Good Reminder

We still have quite a few spaces left for people to sign up for the Common Good. Our sign up sheets for the Common Good (greeting, providing flowers, hosting coffee/social hour) are located on the bulletin board in the parlor. These sign up sheets give everyone an opportunity to add their name to the dates they would like to greet, supply flowers and/or host our coffee/social hour. We would like to see everyone participate 2-3 times over the year if possible. In every case you will receive an email reminder the week before your chosen dates. Thank you for your participation.

Sanford Unitarian Universalist Church Has a Facebook Page

In case you were not aware, along with many other churches, we have clicked into 'social media' with a Facebook page. Death by Chocolate Resurrection Report

This occasion was a resounding success, judging from the social engagement among our congregation and choir visitors, the obvious pleasure felt by our bakers, who outdid themselves with heavenly chocolate creations to tempt all palates, and the joyful participation of all those who helped out in many capacities, including many of the children, who came in early and stayed late. Dee was the lucky winner of Ruth's chocolate pizza, so she will have a group of happy campers at home! We owe a huge debt of gratitude to our very generous anonymous donor, who treated everyone present with cafe goodies to die for! We sold the remaining 3 jars of Liz Perry's famous hot fudge at an auction price of $10.00 each, bringing our grand total to $541.00. As always, Mona and Bill gave their all to make things go smoothly, efficiently and beautifully, for which I am deeply grateful.

From the glorious music that preceded the event to the happy gathering that followed, it was a harmonious and lovely Sunday morning. Thank you, one and all, for your enthusiastic participation.

A Note from Rev. Steve

Dear Friends, This is to let you know that from Wednesday afternoon, April 5 to Friday afternoon, April 7, I will join ministerial colleagues from the Northern New England UU Minister's Association on a professional retreat. This will be held at the Marie Joseph Spiritual Center in Biddeford. As you see, this will not be far away and although it will shorten my usual office hours in Saco, I will check in with both churches that day before "crossing the river." In the event of a pastoral emergency, I will still be reachable through my usual cell-phone and e-mail contacts, (though I would really stress the word, "emergency.") Best thoughts, Rev. Steve

Game of Thrones

Join us on Thursday evenings at 6:30pm in the parlor as we present season one of the hit series "Game of Thrones." This presentation series is by invitation and is a community educational outreach activity through the Maine People's Alliance. There are no charges or fees for attendees. We'll have a brief introduction and then we'll follow up the viewing with a discussion that may look at links in "medieval societies" and our modern ones. No one under the age of 18 without written permission of a parent or guardian. This presentation will be for educational purposes only. Please contact Patty Kidder for more information.
